HAWTHORNE RACING.

Friday was the last day but one of Hawthorne's 1899 racing season. The afternoon was bright and summery and the going was at its best and the attendance of holiday proportions. The racing all through was marked by incidents out of the ordinary line and the only strong features were Tulla Fonso's fast mile and the regularity with which the favorites were bowled over. Winning favorites have been very scarce at the recent meeting, but yesterday must have been a banner day for the ring as the talent failed to score once.

Perhaps the hardest blow the speculators got was in the last race, which was at a mile, and here is where Tulla Fonso made her fast time. The filly stepped once around the ring in 1:39 1/4, which equals the track record held jointly by Tenby, Mizpah and Dr. Nembuta. For this race Streamer, with 97 pounds and Tommy Burns up, was a staunch favorite at about 13 to 10. Tulla Fonso was at one time as good as 11 to 5, but the sharpshooters unloaded on her and at post time she was backed down to 8 to 5. Starter Meyer was good to Tulla Fonso and sent her away about a length in front. She had speed galore, and going at a terrific pace she opened up a big gap early. The first five furlongs were run in 1:01 1/4 and Tulla Fonso was five lengths in front. On the turn Streamer seemed to gain a trifle on the flying machine in front but when Tulla Fonso rolled off the first three-quarters in 1:13 1/4 and still had something left it seemed to discourage both Streamer and Burns. They never gave up, however, and before the finish was reached put Tulla Fonso to a drive. The filly stood the drive, and staggering and out to the limit, managed to last long enough to win by about two lengths.

Diggs won an extra good race for him from Ferroll in the second, a seven-furlong event. Diggs was lucky and well ridden by Burns and this accounts for his making such a good showing. Ferroll, the favorite, tried to run out on the stretch turn and this left plenty of room for Diggs to come through on the rail, which he did. It was no fault of Dugan's that Ferroll went wide on the turn as she always does this and cannot be broken of the habit.

Ed Corrigan's filly Basseda seems to be in her best form again, and she won the three-quarter two-year-old event off by herself. For some unknown reason The Monk, who has been running poorly of late, was made a 6 to 5 favorite over Basseda. He finished third.

Nellie Fonso, after many a trial, at last broke out of the maiden class. She got a flying start in the first race and won all the way.

The fourth and fifth races, which were at one mile and a sixteenth and one mile, respectively, were won by Friar John and Jimp. In both cases the selling race war was evident. Friar John was run up $200 over his entered price by W. P. Magrane, and Handicapper Miller boosted Jimp from $500 to $800. Both owners retained their horses for the customary five.

J. C. Cahn has sold his fast filly Silver Fizz, by Silver Fox—Tonique, to Pat Corrigan. Mr. Cahn declared yesterday that all the horses he had in training were for sale.

Jockey Boyd, who came to a sudden end riding Globe II. Monday last, was given burial at Mr. John Brenock's expense Thursday.

Today is the windup at Hawthorne for this season and Manager McAvoy deserves being highly complemented for the way in which he has handled the business end of the racing. McAvoy is a Chicago man and his many friends are glad that the Hawthorne meeting has been a big financial success.

LOCAL RACING.

With the conclusion of to-day's racing at Hawthorne the record of the track for the year of grace, 1899, will be made up. It is a story of fine racing, good management, extreme vigilance in the judge's stand and deserved pecuniary success. For all this Judge Rees, Secretary Kuhl and Manager McAvoy come in for well earned praise for efficient service in their respective departments.

The last meeting of the year at Harlem begins Monday with every prospect of two weeks' racing up to the high standard that has characterized the track this year. It will be followed by fifteen days at Lakeside and then local patrons of racing will have to go into winter camp while awaiting with such patience as may be at their command, the return of the bangtails next May.

Secretary Nathanson has issued his program book for the first six days at Harlem. The conditions of the purse show thoughtful consideration for all classes of owners and horses and will insure a wide distribution of the money offered. A $500 purse is provided for Monday, Thursday and Saturday; the others are of the customary $400 size. The long distance race of the week will be a mile and a half dash, slated for Tuesday. Seventeen of the thirty-six purses call for contests at a mile or over and eleven are the exclusive property of the two-year-olds.

In connection with the meeting to take place at Lakeside, Secretary Nathanson gives owners notice to the following effect:

"The fall meeting of 15 days will begin Monday, October 30. Purses will be $400 and $500. Six races will be run each day, beginning at 2 o'clock.

"Applications for stalls may be filed on and after Tuesday, October 17, with the secretary at Harlem.

"Persons who ship or send horses to the track without having previously obtained signed orders will be denied all privileges.

"No 'request' races for this meeting will be considered."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mr. W. C. Whitney has relented in the Clawson matter, and the boy will again be allowed to don his riding jacket. Clawson's saddle work was so slovenly at Gravesend that Mr. Whitney ordered him to stand down for the remainder of the season. Friends interceded for the boy, and the result is he is given an opportunity to redeem himself. Clawson will go to New Orleans this winter under engagement to the stable of Frank Reagan.—New York Herald.

Rixford, the clever little colt by Brutus, who won two races at Oakland last week, was formerly the property of Burns & Waterhouse. He showed up in his work so poorly that the big racing firm offered him as a gift to J. Foley, who used to work for them. Foley refused him, and Clarence Waterhouse gave Fountain, the colt's present owner, a feed box, bridle and blanket if he would take him away from the stable.

Atkin & Lottridge have twenty-two horses in training this season. Among them is old Scarborough, who both looks and works better than ever before.

Jockey McJoynt is the Tod Sloan of the running meeting now in progress at Dallas, Texas. On Monday he rode four winners—the entire card.

John E. Madden has sold to Richard Croker the yearling brown filly by His Highness—Retribution. Price, $3,250.

Mr. Joseph J. Burke has been engaged to act as presiding judge at Tanforan Park. Harry Kuhl and Edward Smith will be his associates.

SPEEDY HAWTHORNE.

Hawthorne is a very fast racetrack this year. This has been strikingly illustrated by the number of times 1:40 has been beaten in the course of its ten weeks of exceedingly good racing. In that feature it is the record holder. It is rarely that 1:40 is beaten on any of the faster tracks of the country but it has been done so frequently at Hawthorne that it hardly excites comment. Yet it about represents the limit of speed. Nine horses have passed the mark at Hawthorne. Two, Tenby and Serrano, having twice performed the unusual feat. The following table shows the dates on which 1:40 was beaten over the beautiful Cicero course and the horses that did it:

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Last Monday's San Francisco Chronicle contains the following statement concerning the popular president of the California Jockey Club, than whom no more honorable and fair turfman ever raced horses:

"Tom Williams is going to emulate Pierre Lorillard, W. C. Whitney and Richard Croker, and will race a stable of horses in England. This news will be received with favor, as Tom Williams is a keen sportsman and an excellent judge of a racehorse. It is Williams' intention to get together a formidable stable, composed principally of California-bred horses. There is a report that the president of the California Jockey Club will be given the pick of the Burns & Waterhouse stable, which now contains fifty horses.

"The all black and orange cap of Tom Williams is familiar to all turfmen, and some crack horses sported his colors before Williams' retirement from the turf in 1894, because of his active participation in the affairs of the California Jockey Club as its president. This was regarded as a wise move at the time, as it effectually did away with any chance for hostile criticism.

"Tom Williams has been actively identified with the turf interests of California for the past fifteen years, during which time he has raced scores of thoroughbreds. He made several campaigns in the east, and with such horses as Racine, Rinfax and Flirtation made his presence felt in the early nineties. Racine attracted wide spread attention by running a mile over the Washington Park track in 1:39 1/4, cutting the long-standing world's record of 1:39 1/2 made by the famous Ten Broeck. Before assuming the presidency of a jockey club Tom Williams was noted for his game qualities as a better, and invariably had up any way from $500 to $5,000 on the horses that carried the black and orange in an important event. As a match-maker no turfman has had the success of Tom Williams, as he has a record unapproached by defeat in that respect. The majority of horsemen labored under the impression that he had the worst of it when he matched Rinfax against Geraldine. Williams was especially anxious to beat Geraldine, as she was owned by Porter Ashe, his erstwhile friend, but uncompromising enemy at the time of the match race, which was taken by Rinfax.

"Williams also provided the sinews of war for Clacquer in his five-furlong match race with Brader Lassie, who was owned by A. B. Spreckels. Clacquer proved the winner.

"The main details about the English turf campaign have yet to be arranged, but it can be predicted that the California turfman will have good horses and a competent jockey when his colors are seen in England for the first time."

YEARLINGS DOWN EAST.

"There is a larger number of yearling thoroughbreds quartered in the vicinity of the Metropolitan tracks at present than has ever been seen before. The embryo racers are for the most part of course owned by the big establishments, but several of the smaller owners have purchased at the big sales, and there is no knowing where lightning will strike," says the Morning Telegraph. "The history of racing shows that a yearling knocked down for a hundred to a poor man might be as good in his two-year-old form as one sold to one of the magnates of the turf for several times that amount, and hence the attraction of the yearling sales.

"The late Mr. Withers, one of the most conspicuous figures of the American turf, did not think the history of a racehorse commenced with his yearling form. He did not think one trial in fifty was verified by his subsequent running. That is a mooted question among trainers and turfites.

"The system of training yearlings has been much changed of late years. Formerly it was the custom after breaking them thoroughly and allowing them a bit of slow galloping to let them down once before putting them into winter quarters. Now the new system of training seems to be to give them a lot of galloping work added to as much as two fast moves before sending them to the barn for the winter.

"Among the most conspicuous owners of big strings who have made extensive purchases of yearlings to try for honors in next year's races are the Fleischmann Sons. Trainer Thomas Welsh guides the paces of the Fleischmann string, and as he knows a thing or two about yearlings or any other racers, they may be trusted to race up to the mark when he sends them to the post.

"The Fleischmann youngsters, twenty in number, and purchased from the best breeding establishments at various prices, are as follows: Brown colt, by Bramble—Promenade; bay colt, by Bramble—Issie Lee B; brown colt, by Governor Foraker—Philippine; chestnut colt, by St. Martin—Emulation; bay filly, by St. Martin—Frances; chestnut filly, by St. Martin—Florio; bay colt, by Javanal—Born Fool.

"The above were bred by the Messrs. Fleischmann. The following were purchased at the Belle Meade sale: Chestnut colt, by Iroquois—Tarantula; black colt, by Fresno—Marian; bay colt, by Order—Longfellow mare; brown colt, by Order—Longfellow mare.

"Mr. Belmont sold the stable the bay colt by Margrave—Mount Hermon. From the Williams sale the Fleischmanns got the chestnut colt by Albert—Bonnie Ola.

"At Clay & Woodford's auction the following were purchased: Chestnut colt, by Sir Dixon—Kentucky Belle; bay colt, by Sir Dixon—Bonnie Blue.

"From Milton Young the chestnut colt by Hanover—Rhody Gale was purchased.

"There is not a more promising lot of young 'uns in the possession of an establishment in America than this. The best prices were paid for them. Several of them have been highly tried at the farm at Millstone, N. J., where they are and when they race trainer Welsh can be depended upon to do his part when the Fleischmann silk is sported with these youngsters.

"J. J. Hyland is represented by only one yearling now at the track. He is distinguishedly bred, being by Henry of Navarre—Ortega, making him a full sister to the fast Octagon. He

"H. T. Griffin has five in his stable, purchased

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.
